

Student Of Politics Runs For Council

Thomas R. Faren, student of political science at Long Beach State college, has entered the race for the post of City Councilman.

Faren, a resident of Torrance for the past 14 years, resides at 2329 West 237th st., with his wife, Beverly, and their 16-month-old son, Michael Dean. He is at present majoring in the field of administrative proceedings of city, state, and federal government.

He attended Torrance high school and El Camino Junior college before entering Long Beach state. He is a member of Chi Iota Gamma Veterans Fraternity.

The 27-year-old political science major was a staff-sergeant with the U. S. Air Force. He served in the Air Force from 1949 to 1953 and served one year with the 3rd Bomb Wing in Korea.

He was born in Martins Ferry, Ohio, and has formerly been employed in the field of carpentry.

Frank W. Burk, salesman at Harmony Home Furnishers, is running for City Councilman in the forthcoming election.

He and Mrs. Burk reside at 3401 Zakon road, with their three children, Clifford LeRoy, 14; Donna Lee, 8; and William Earl, 5.

A resident of Torrance for the past 8 years, Burk has been active in youth work. He re-

He was a rigger instructor with the U.S. Army Paratroops.

Burk has been formerly employed as a flight inspector with Douglas Aircraft and as an operator with Pacific Electric Railway. He owned and operated Frank's Auto Repair.

He is 36 years old.

Navy Offers Two-Year Enlistment

The Navy is offering young men and women a chance to see the world without signing up for a four-year or six-year enlistment, according to Lieutenant Commander C. O. Little, recruiting officer of the Los Alamitos Naval Air Station at Long Beach.

For a limited time two-year active duty periods in the Navy are available for young men and young women. Persons interested may go on immediate active duty or delay their active duty until the complete their high school education or current year of college.

Men and women desiring to take active duty for two years or wishing to join the Naval Air Reserve may call in person at Building 16, of the Los Alamitos Naval Air Station, Long Beach, or telephone HEMlock 4-3481, extension 241. This recruiting office is open for information and business seven days a week.
